

Celebrate America
Featuring All American Stars
Secrest Auditorium
334 Shinnick Street, Zanesville, Ohio
Friday, October 31, 2008

Dinner- 5:30pm and Show - 7:30pm

Join us for a Freedom Years Evening Out right here in downtown Zanesville at our beautiful Secrest Auditorium. Celebrate America as a high energy, Branson style show that features Gospel, Oldies, Broadway, Country and Patriotism like you have always wanted it presented! Headlining this great production is Johnny Porrazzo, professional musician, entertainer, singer, songwriter, and pianist. Johnny brings to the stage a commanding presence and dynamic style of rock and pop with a touch of gospel.

The All American Stars featured in the show includes Kellye Cash, (Miss America 1987) gospel artist and performer, and the niece of Country music legend, Johnny Cash; Shana Teel, direct from Nashville; Karissa Martin, Miss Ohio; dancers, Karlie Sites and David Dunn; and a cast of tremendous dancers and singers from all over Ohio and the Mid West!

Producer of this terrific show is Zanesville's own John Kunkel, Manager of Secrest Auditorium. John has been involved with the Miss America production for the past four decades. His company, Impact Productions, produces top talent shows and productions throughout the US.

Enjoy a special pre-show buffet dinner for Freedom Years in the lower level at Secrest. Our meal includes Baked Steak, Chicken Primavera, Potatoes, Green Beans, Salad, Rolls, Beverages, and Dessert. Featured entertainers from the show will be joining us for dinner.

Celebrate patriotism and love of your country while supporting a spectacular community event.

Price Per Person: $33

Price Includes: Reserved Center Section Seats starting in row J; Catered Pre-Show Meal (gratuity included).

Final Payment Due: October 15, 2008